

Says Simple Remedy Prolonged His Life

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN EFFECTIVE AS A REMEDY FOR CONSTIPATION

Among older people the various organs of the body have a tendency to slow up and weaken, and this is usually first manifest in a pronounced inactivity of the bowels.

Good health is dependent on regularity in this important function; whenever there is the slightest indication of constipation a mild laxative should be taken to relieve the congestion and dispose of the accumulated waste. Cathartics or purgatives should not be employed, however; these are too violent in action and their effect is only temporary.

A mild laxative such as the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is the ideal remedy. It is gentle in its action, bringing relief in an easy, natural manner, without gripping or other pain or discomfort, is pleasant to the taste, and can be obtained in any drug store.

Mr. Robert LeForgee, 918 Kirkwood Boulevard, Davenport, Iowa, says he has always had a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house for the past eighteen years, and that by using it occasionally as the need arises, and in this way keeping his health good, it has prolonged his life, and brought ease and comfort.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists everywhere, and costs only fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

MISS RANKIN TAKES SEAT

Representative Jeanette Rankin, of Montana, first woman member of Congress took her seat in the House after an elaborate prelude of ceremonies in which women suffragists predominated.

The principal occasion was a breakfast for "The Hon. Jeanette Rankin, of Montana," under the auspices of suffragists of all factions.

Miss Rankin's entrance to the House was signalized by uproarious cheering and applause. Every member on the floor and everybody in the crowded galleries rose as, accompanied by Representative Evans, of Montana, she walked to a seat in the rear center of the hall.

Miss Rankin carried one of the scores of bouquets of flowers which had come to her office. She wore no hat and was attired in a dark dress. Members rushed from all parts of the chamber to congratulate her.

In anticipation of a vast war demand for additional government clerks and other employees, President Wilson, by executive order, has authorized the civil service commission to fill vacancies for which no suitable eligibles exist, with persons who have been subjected only to non-competitive tests.

A petition for a local option election is being circulated in Marion county, but as it has been impossible so far to secure sufficient signatures the matter will go over for another month.

MIDDLEBURG

Mrs. W. T. Jasper and Miss Ruby Fogle gave the children an egg hunt Sunday afternoon that was greatly enjoyed by the little fellows. There was some two or three dollars worth of eggs wanted but the children got ten dollars worth of fun out of them.

Rev. C. D. Chick filled his regular appointment here Sunday morning and evening but the weather was so bad as to prevent many from attending.

The usual Easter squall came but with a little more fury than we liked. Thursday of last week was one of the worst of days and we were made to rejoice that Easter comes only once a year.

H. Clay Kauffman, candidate for State Senator was here Saturday talking to Democrats about his race. McDowell Jones accompanied him through this section and did the introducing.

Henry Thomas told us when at Liberty some days since, that he sure would win the Republican nomination for County Judge. He may win, but he has four others to reckon with, and it looks now like throwing up hands and tails.

This locality is not likely to have any trouble with Germans during the war. We have only one, George Dietz at Grove, and he is so clever and law-abiding that we fear no trouble with him, besides we hear that he is ready to help Uncle Sam if his services are needed.

A petition is being circulated asking Gov. Stanley to pardon Marion McCreary, who was sent to the pen at the last term of the circuit court on a charge of kukluxing. All the court officers and eight of the jurors that sat in the case had signed it when it was presented to the writer. It is the consensus of opinion that he should not have been convicted, considering the characters of the parties he is alleged to have assisted in wallowing.

M. S. Burton, who does a traveling merchant business in this section seems to be enjoying a fairly good trade. His wagon makes this locality every Wednesday delivering groceries at the doors of his customers and taking in exchange eggs, butter, poultry, etc. George Lucas is salesman and his weekly visits are eagerly looked forward to as he carries everything in the grocery line.

Walking twelve miles in four hours, Miss Annie Todd, of Carrollton, a student of the University of Kentucky, won $10 from Ollie Troutman, who wagered her she could not walk from Lexington to Nicholasville.

THE ROYAL JACK EXCELSIOR

Hear Ye!—See Me!—The "Royal Jack," "Excelsior." I again appear before the public for close scrutiny and admiration and abundant service, and am opposed to the cost of high living and place my charges where the farmer of moderate means can do business with me at the "low cost of living prices" as well as the rich. My progeny speak for themselves, selling as weanlings for $65 to $150, and at two years of age for $200. Reference: Messrs. Bun Gaines, J. G. Livingston, J. H. Harris, Jacobum Retrofract, Wm. Long, Lute King, John Saylor, J. G. Carpenter and many others. I have all the marking, form, size, symmetry, bones, muscles, tendons, equipments and color true to my Jackship; am an athlete and possess the greatest agility and gambol over the green sward like a race horse, and have a musical soprano-voice, with a basso profunda alternations and bray the happy hours away; the pass word is Eureka; favorite songs, "Home, Sweet Home," and "My Old Kentucky Home." Motto: Get there Eli. I have aquiline eyes, pleasing countenance, style, typical head, ears, neck, shoulders, body, back, bones, hips, hocks, legs and feet, and caudal appendage. My keeper friend and guide is Thomas Matheuselah Johnson.

Scientific breeders state the dam gives 70% of potency and prepotency to the gametes; others say 50% of this power and force is given by the dam and 50% by the sire. Send me dam 16 hands high, and that weigh 1,000 to 1,400 pounds, with good conformation and you will get mule colts that will weigh 1,200 to 1,400 pounds when matured with age. I arrange and fructify the gametes, and nature does the rest for my nervous electro-ionic; my blood that of royalty; composed of the red, white and blue; rich in the "units" of "proximate principals"; my nerve cells are filled with prana; the results will be through electroplastic radiation and zygosis mule colts of the uniform size and type, for, style, action and beauty, and docility, perfect mules with the "esprit de corps" of their sire; no such word as "hors de combat" or fail, in my vocabulary of Jackology.

As Sol Russell said, "when passing my way 'drop' over on me in peaceful valley."

My friend, "Romeo" the beautiful black registered Polangis Bovine, is doing business here, too—price $1.00 at the lot, and the handsome Adonis, the equine male, well grown, in size, graceful and ideal conformation, will do service at $7.00. We like competition, but, defy successful competition in our lines. "To the victors belong the spoils." My price $8.00. Very truly,

EXCELSIOR—The Royal Jack.

KING'S MOUNTAIN

Rev. Jake Fagaly and wife, of Oklahoma, closed a very successful revival meeting at the Methodist church last week having preached each morning and evening for three weeks to a large congregation. Quite an interest was manifested and we hope much good has been done. Rev. Fagaly is an evangelist and a very able speaker.

H. H. Padgett bought a mare from Hop Steele, near Waynesburg for $90.

Jacob Nance bought a milch cow from R. E. Hartner.

Mrs. Robert Dishon, who has been confined to her bed for several weeks is not improving.

It looks more like war now than ever as some of Uncle Sam's boys have been sent here for the purpose of guarding the tunnel and South Fork bridge. They have their camp tents stretched near the depot and are well equipped and onto their job. The war talk is on everywhere, but here's hoping it is more talk than the real thing.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Baxter have purchased a new self-player piano from Mr. Ford.

Mrs. George Dishon and children, of Cincinnati, are here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Trimble.

Mrs. Eva Chambers and children are here the guests of parents.

J. Russell Thompson, who has been attending the Normal is at home.

W. L. Johnson, of Science Hill, was here Saturday on business.

Miss Laura Johnson spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Grace Thompson.

Mr. Pickett bought a sow and pigs from Mr. Hudson for $37.

Mrs. Wash Cook and children, of Detroit, Mich., are visiting relatives here and at Highland. It will be remembered that Mrs. Cook was formerly Mrs. Sarah Burton, of this place.

Miss Elizabeth Dye, of Danville, spent Sunday with homefolks.

Cecil Gooch and Perry Reynolds visited their parents at near Good Hope Saturday and Sunday.

W. C. Brown, of Lexington, spent Sunday night with his parents at Pleasant Point.

The singing will close next Sunday conducted by Prof. H. O. Young, of Highland. A number of young folks from Highland have been attending and have helped to make the singing very interesting.

Miss Caddie Lewis, aged fourteen, and Goebel Cracraft, aged sixteen, both of White Sulphur, Scott county, eloped and were married.

DON VARRICK

Will make the season of 1917 at my stable 1 1/2 mile from Crab Orchard, on the Singleton place, at $10 to insure a living colt. Don Varrick is a beautiful chestnut, 16 1/2 hands; weighs 1,400 pounds, is compactly built and has plenty bone and finish. His colts show for themselves.

Will also stand at the same time and place my saddle stallion

BLACK PRINCE

By Kentucky Peavine, out of a mare by Old Preston. He is a coming four-year-old, as black as a crow and a good one. You should see him. He will stand at $10 to insure.

TWO GREAT MULE JACKS

Will also stand two great mule jacks at $10 to insure. One the well-known Bun Gaines jack and the other, Jesse Fox, a fine fellow, 5 years old and a good breeder. His colts show up nicely. See them both before you breed your mares.

Will stand a fine registered Short-horn Bull at $2 to insure. Money due in all cases when animal is bred elsewhere or parted with.

W. R. GAINES, Crab Orchard, Ky.

ALMONT DARE

Almont Dare, 3225, is a rich red bay stallion; 16 hands high with good bone and fine style. Is extremely fast both under saddle and in harness. He is a full brother to Toxy Dare that won the championship for saddle bred brood mares at the Kentucky State fair in 1914, defeating Edna May and others and to Nettleton that sold for $3,600 and others at $1,500. He is the best one of the lot. His colts have frequently defeated the colts of sires standing as high as $75. Have sold his colts myself for $500. Others claim offers of $1,000. They also are the very best to use at home, being large, fine, game, durable and kind.

Will make the season at $10 to insure live colt.
Bryan Breckinridge, my registered black jack, 16 hands with extremely large bone will stand for mares at $10 for mare mules and $8 for horse mule. Will also breed jennets any month in year at $10 to insure colt. Have sold his colts for $120 at weaning time. Grass furnished at $2 per month and all stock entrusted to me will receive my personal attention, but will not be responsible for accidents. Season on the above are due when colt is foaled or mare bred to other stock or stock parted with. All the above will make the season at my place, two and a half miles west of Hustonville, on Hustonville and Liberty pike. Pedigrees furnished upon request.

S. T. POWELL, Hustonville, Ky.

Preserve Your Property BY USING H. & W. Pure Prepared Paint

"The Brand That Satisfies"

A Pure White Lead, Oxide Zinc and Linseed Oil Paint of great covering power, spreading capacity and durability. There is no guess work about its quality. Read the formula on every can. This paint forms a tough, tenacious, leather like coating which remains in perfect condition for many years. It retains its color too. It costs no more to apply the best than a cheap, inferior grade. Therefore the best is the cheapest in the long run.

H. & W. Brand has been sold in your community for years. Ask your dealer about its quality and for names of users.

A COMMENDABLE PRAYER

We do not know who Homer McKee may happen to be, but certainly Homer McKee's prayer, as published by the Kansas state board of health, is something that would be worth while for all of us to consider; and we commit the principle to heart we cannot go far astray. Here it is:

Teach me that 60 minutes make an hour, 16 ounces one pound, and 100 cents one dollar.

Help me to live that I can lie down at night with a clear conscience, without a gun under my pillow and untroubled by the faces of those to whom I have brought pain.

Grant, I beseech Thee, that I may earn my meal ticket on the square, and in doing thereof that I may not stick the gaff where it does not belong.

Deafen me to the jingle of tainted money and the rustle of unholy skirts.

Blind me to the faults of the other fellow, but reveal to me my own.

Guide me so that each night when

I look across the dinner table at my wife, who has been a blessing to me, that I will have nothing to conceal. Keep me young enough to laugh at my children and to lose myself in their play.

And then when comes the smell of flowers and the tread of soft steps, and the crunching of the hearer's wheels in the gravel out in front of my place, make the ceremony short and the epitaph simple: "Here Lies a Man."

At Richmond court Monday good 500 to 600 pound steers brought $10 a hundred. Several bunches sold at that figure. Other lots sold at from $9 to $9.75 a hundred. Calves weighing in the neighborhood of 200 pounds, brought $20 a head. There were many horses and mules on the market and a great many changed hands at good prices. The prices ranged from $125 to $250 a head for mules and horses sold at a like figure.

The Interior Journal, $1.50 a year.

Rowland Peavine

No. 6053

Rowland Peavine—chestnut stallion, foaled May 14, 1912. Sired by Rex Peavine, No. 1796, by Rex McDonald, No. 833, by Rex Denmark 840.

1st dam: Bourboniste, No. 9297 (full sister to Bourbon's Best) by Bourbon Chief 976, by Harrison Chief 1606, by Clark Chief 89.

2nd dam: Judy Oliver 6407, by Red Cloud 2197, by Indian Chief 1718.

3rd dam: by Wilson's King 2197.

4th dam: Daughter of Sim's Clark Chief 2575.

Rowland Peavine is a rich chestnut, with star and snip; stands 15.3 full; weighs 1100 pounds; five years old. As you will see from the above breeding, he has the blood of the best show horses Kentucky has ever produced, and is one himself. You should see this horse before booking your mare.

You rarely ever have the opportunity to breed to a horse as fashionably bred at the small fee of

$20.00 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT

Will make the season of 1917 at my stable on East Main street. Money due at birth of colt or when mare is parted with or bred to other stock.
